Kalvakuntla Chandrashekar Rao, better known as KCR, is the Chief Minister of Telangana, India. A driving force behind the Telangana movement, he spearheaded the Telangana Rashtra Samithi (TRS) party, which secured victory in the 2014 elections, leading to the creation of Telangana state. KCR's leadership is marked by a focus on welfare schemes aimed at uplifting the state's population. Notable initiatives include Rythu Bandhu, a farmer support program providing financial assistance, and KCR Kits, offering essential supplies to new mothers. His populist policies and commitment to Telangana's development have made him a prominent figure in Indian politics.
