KCR stands for Kalvakuntla Chandrashekhar Rao, the current Chief Minister of Telangana, a state in southern India. He is the founder of the Telangana Rashtra Samithi (TRS) party, which has been in power in Telangana since the state's formation in 2014.

KCR, as he is popularly known, has been a key figure in the Telangana movement, which sought to create a separate state for the Telangana region. He has been instrumental in shaping the state's policies and development initiatives.

Under his leadership, Telangana has seen significant growth and development in areas such as infrastructure, IT, and industry. KCR is known for his populist policies and welfare schemes, which have endeared him to many in the state.
